Exemption from filing c/c of the impugned judgment is allowed.

It is stated by Mr. P. Chidambaram, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of State of Punjab that the offer is made to the petitioners to resolve the entire controversy. This offer was also made before the High Court and forms part of the impugned judgment of the High Court. It is mentioned in para 6 of the impugned judgment and order of the High Court.

The offer is to the following effect:

"The petitioners will surrender their respective contracts after receiving in advance the profit for the balance term of their respective contract as per the agreement. This could be worked out by multiplying the quantity of balance extractable minor mineral by the bid price and subtracting the expenses from it."

It is stated by learned senior counsel of the State of Punjab that this is a firm offer and will be put down on affidavit. The affidavit will be filed on or before 09.05.2018. The petitioners may proceed to take instructions on the basis of this firm offer without waiting for the affidavit.
